

EXPLORER CAFÉ

SPRING 2014

January 29

"Are We Colorblind? Perceiving Race on Campus"

Charles Gallagher, Ph.D., Sociology and Criminal Justice Department, and Maureen O'Connell, Ph.D., Religion Department

February 5

"Is It Possible to Use Science to Understand Our Ethical Decision-Making?"

Randy Fingerhut, Ph.D., Psychology Department

February 12

"Alone with My iPhone: Has Technology Changed My Personal Interactions?"

John Caputo and David Sullivan

February 19 (will be held in St. Benilde Tower, Room 4448)

"Why Haiti? An Emerging Lasallian Partnership"

Frances Kinder, Ph.D., and Mary Wilby, MSN, R.N., Nursing

February 26

A La Salle University National Eating Disorder Awareness Week Event

"What is Healthy Competition? Peer Comparisons of Looks, Brains, and Popularity"

Katie Dunleavy, Ph.D., Communication Department

March 12

"What Does It Mean to be Lasallian?"

Kathleen Czekanski, Ph.D., Associate Dean, School of Nursing and Health Sciences, Susan Dixon, Ph.D., Fine Arts and Art History Department, and Joel Garver, Ph.D., Philosophy Department

March 19—Heritage Week Event

"Plenty of Poverty in Our Own Backyard: Why Leave Home to Serve?"

UMAS Student Leaders Molly Fay, Jillian Lucanie, Alex Stinger, and Alex Toruno and Laura Gambrel, Ph.D., Psychology Department

March 26

"Workplace Integrity: How Do You Speak Your Mind When You Know What's Right?"

Lynn Miller, Ph.D., and Karen Reardon, Ph.D., J.D., Management and Leadership Department

April 2

"Is Science the Enemy?"

William Weaver, Ph.D., Integrated Science, Business, and Technology Department

April 9

"What Will Your Funeral Look Like? Cultural Customs, Rituals, and Beliefs in Death and Funeral Tradition"

Melinda Ingersoll, Director of Study Abroad, and Jack Downey, Ph.D., Religion Department

April 16

"Liquid Nitrogen Ice Cream Party"

Chemistry Students and William Price, Ph.D., and Michael Prushan, Ph.D., Chemistry Department

Wednesdays, 3–4 p.m. | Holroyd Hall Atrium

The Explorer Café is an informal, interdisciplinary forum that brings the La Salle community together for engaging, interactive discussions on thought-provoking topics. Cafés are open to all, and no prior experience or technical jargon is required. Come check us out if you are looking for interesting conversations, a comfortable atmosphere, food, and friends.

EXPLORER CAFÉ

SPRING 2014

THE EXPLORER
CONNECTION

JANUARY 29

“Are We Colorblind? Perceiving Race on Campus”

Chip Gallagher, Ph.D., Sociology and Criminal Justice Department, and Maureen O’Connell, Ph.D., Religion Department

3–4 p.m. | Holroyd Hall Atrium

The Explorer Café is an informal, interdisciplinary forum that brings the La Salle community together for engaging, interactive discussions on thought-provoking topics. Cafés are open to all, and no prior experience or technical jargon is required. Come check us out if you are looking for interesting conversations, a comfortable atmosphere, food, and friends.